

You may a dollar will escape you if you fail to read carefully and regularly the advertising of local merchants in this paper.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

CANFIELD MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, JUNE 29, 1917.

THEY ALWAYS COME BACK

Every person who gives us a printing job is satisfied. When he has another printing order he never thinks of going elsewhere. If you need printing drop in and see us.

$1.00 A YEAR

ISLAND

June 27—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Martin, Mr. and Mrs. S. Burkholder and Mrs. Lovina Horst are visiting relatives in Wayne county.

Abe Lehman and sister Mary of Belgium and Mr. and Mrs. Sab Good recently called on Mrs. Susan Lehman. Miss Marjorie Rohrer of Wadsworth, who spent some time with her grandfather, J. M. Knopp, and family, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and Miss Mary Zeigler visited at Noah Weaver's Sunday.

Mrs. D. E. Lehman and daughter Mollie called on Mrs. Carrie Thomas in Salem Sunday.

H. E. Calvin and family of Clarksville were entertained Sunday at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. H. Calvin.

About four hundred descendants of Bishop Jacob Neff and family gathered Thursday at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Riehl on the eastern outskirts of Leetonia to honor the memory of these worthy ancestors who came from the east and settled on this farm one hundred years ago. Guests were present from Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Missouri and other states.

H. H. Calvin has ordered a carload of lime for himself and a few of the neighbors. Get into the game and do likewise, farmers, and raise clover like your grandfathers used to.

Joseph and David Wenger and sisters Edith and Anna called on Norman and Alta Lehman, Sunday.

Mrs. Kane and daughters Dorothy and Florence of Murdockville, Pa., and Edie Feicht and family called at John Deitrow's Sunday evening.

The strawberry season opened Monday. The crop will be large with an extra fine quality of berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Weaver and daughter Mary were entertained Sunday by D. E. Lehman and family.

Dr. Wilson and children of Leetonia called at J. J. Witmer's Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stempel visited at Jonas Culler's Sunday.

Some of our people are hauling their winter supply of coal to make sure of getting it.

Mr. and Mrs. Din Weaver called on Aaron Christophel and sisters, Sunday.

Amos, Stella and Hannah Wenger and John and Amos Witmer called on Phyllis and Emma Wagner, Sunday.

Alfred Rhodes is painting John Witmer's milk house.

Mark Klingensmith, Carl Timblen, Clarence Baker, Edwin Fitzpatrick, Toby Eyster, Jr., Roy Mathey and Emil Guehman sampled Walter Deitrow's berries Sunday evening.

Miss Gay Roller is recovering from her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Zeigler and son Jacob of North Lima and S. R. Martin and family were Sunday guests at A. W. Deitrow and family.

Mrs. M. W. Winkler had a yearling heifer stolen out of the barn Thursday night and hauled away in an auto truck.

J. M. Knopp and family entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Witmer and daughter Nettie, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Witmer and daughter Mary and Ida and Miss Emma Horst.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McClun and Mrs. Nellie Reichard and daughter Esther were sight seeing in Unity Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller attended the Brethren conference and visited relatives in Kansas for several weeks. They stopped off at Lima, O., several days last week with her mother, C. S. Lehman, and family and soon after leaving for home Saturday morning.

Mr. Miller had a stroke on the train which paralyzed his right side. After reaching Columbiana, a book-writer was called and moved him home. Mr. Miller is helpless but conscious and able to talk.

Ed. Hall, wife and children of Belmont were weekend and Sunday visitors with her mother, Mrs. Susie Lehman, and family.

Paul Lehman is working for Harvey Horst through harvest.

Prof. John Wunderlin of Columbiana painted the outside wood work of Henry Lehman's brick house.

Earl Klingensmith of Youngstown, accompanied by an auto load of young folks, spent Sunday with his parents.

Rev. Harry Rohrer of Philadelphia, who was recently married, is visiting his parents and conducted services at Zion Hill church Sunday.

Ira and Sadie Hunsberger of Dalton recently spent a week here with relatives.

Rev. David Martin of Orrville is spending a week with his sister, Mrs. Fannie Lehman.

A. W. Deitrow recently sold a horse to Raymond Hoke of Lisbon.

JOHNSTONVILLE

June 27—Mrs. Clint Witherstine and daughter Mildred visited Mrs. Wm. Rupright Saturday.

Mayor John Fink and August Schmidt of Cornersburg called on the street Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherstine called on Ray Fusselman Saturday.

Miss Edie Neff and Della Shisler called on Selda Greier Sunday evening.

Frankie Shisler visited Frank Smith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parker and daughter Florence visited Mrs. Leah Fusselman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Craver of Youngstown called on Ray Fusselman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Neff and son Homer visited Mr. and Mrs. George visited Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cutting Sunday.

Mr. Johnston of Youngstown bought the property belonging to Lucy Reed and will take possession before the fourth of July.

Wm. Shafer and Randal Albert called on Alfred Greier Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cutting and children called on her parents Monday.

There will be Sunday school next Sunday in the United Evangelical church at 11 a. m. eastern time.

Harry Shears called on Canfield friends Saturday.

Personally, we have no objection to a woman's owning a lap dog, provided she will keep him on her own lap.

Say you saw it advertised in the Dispatch.

SHADY HOLLOW

June 27—Anna Paulin is clerking in C. C. Neff's store in Canfield.

Mrs. Carrie Wertz is home from Akron and expects to stay about a week.

Fred Fries and family of Woodworth called at A. C. Heintzelman's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gintner of Uniontown and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunlap of Canton spent Saturday night at L. J. Snyder's.

Alvin Knopp and family of Island visited at Elms Bare's Sunday.

Howard Kyle and John Heintzelman visited Clark Leyman of West Anderson, Sunday.

E. R. Withers and family visited his sisters, Mary and Matilda Withers, in Boardman, Sunday.

Eben Greasel and wife of Pittsburgh spent Saturday night at Syl Heintzelman's.

H. H. Stambaugh is building a large poultry house on his farm.

Chas. Zimmerman of Cornersburg and Lewis Zimmerman of Youngstown visited Kenneth Heintzelman Sunday.

Daisy and Shontz bought some young cattle from Hugh Knauft of Toot's Corners.

The grading is almost completed on the north end of the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Snyder of Indianapolis called at L. J. Snyder's Sunday afternoon.

C. L. Meeker took the first strawberries of the season to Youngstown Saturday evening and got 22c a quart for them from Fred Moody.

Eleanor Dells of Canfield spent Sunday with Lottie Kyle at H. C. Heintzelman's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heintzelman and Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman and daughter Esther and son John and Howard Kyle attended the alumni meeting at Boardman school Saturday evening.

Monroe Clay of Dublin called on Wm. Hall Friday afternoon.

Daisy Wyon and daughter of Youngstown called on Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Ruggy Sunday morning.

C. L. Meeker and family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Meeker, of New Buffalo, Sunday.

John Van Fossan and family visited at Jacob Reel's in Austintown Sunday.

Gertrude Nelson, one of the Boardman teachers, is spending a few days at H. C. Heintzelman's.

The members of the Reformed church wish to extend thanks to those that wish to belong to New Buffalo grange for the donation of $66 presented on Sunday morning.

Arthur Duval of Austintown township called at I. Hixson's Saturday evening.

Isabel Paulin of Callis is spending a few days with his son, O. H. Paulin.

Alice Winter and sister, Mrs. Allison and Mr. Cobb and son of Petersburg called at H. C. Heintzelman's one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and daughter Helen and Mr. and Mrs. Stafford and son called on John Van Fossan's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Syl Heintzelman were at Louis Greasel's and Chas. Baird's Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church will meet with Mrs. Jonas Kohler on Crane Street Saturday, June 30.

Mrs. Amanda Price and grandson Emory, of Cortland are spending a few days with Mrs. H. C. Heintzelman.

MILLVILLE

June 27—Thursday the Home circle was entertained at the home of Mrs. Freeman Hailey. Music, fancywork and a social time were enjoyed by the 16 members present. A fine lunch was served by the hostess and daughter after which they adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Bush the second Thursday in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese, Mrs. Ann Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reese and daughter Roberta, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vincent and children composed the auto party entertained at the home of J. T. Thomas and family of Ohiotown Sunday.

Eli Bricker and family of Salem were guests of Ed. Shepherd, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fitzpatrick and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Roberts and Mrs. Isabel Roberts of Youngstown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Orr, Sunday.

Mrs. Lilly Greenamyre, who visited in Salem, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Dunn, who has been indisposed the past week, is improving.

Archie Holland and friends spent a few hours at the home of C. K. Heintzelman of Goshen Center on his return trip from Canton in his new touring car.

G. W. Betz and family motored to Alliance to spend Sunday with friends.

George Holland of Leetonia was a business visitor in the village Wednesday.

A few from this community attended chautauqua in Leetonia the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frederick are spending several weeks with relatives in and near Springfield.

A few from here attended children's day exercises in Salem Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr.

BLANCO

June 27—Jacob Heisel and family spent Sunday with Hiram Heisel and family.

Clyde B. Kale and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hermer in Newton Falls.

Mrs. Fred Wolfred and children of Youngstown spent last week with the former's mother, Mrs. W. F. Penkenberger.

Geo. Shrader of Berlin Center was a Sunday caller at E. Kale's.

Lincoln Snook and family spent Friday evening at M. Snook's in Pricetown.

Jacob Heisel was in Newton Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales Force and son Royal spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. McIntyre, and family in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Burkley were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. H. M. Orr.

John Glass of Newton Falls spent Monday at James Weaver's.

NORTH LIMA

June 27—Goodlow's ball team from Youngstown played the locals on the home grounds Saturday afternoon, and defeated them 16 to 7.

Fourteen arrests were made during the last week by constable Charles Shank for trespassing on Pine Lake property. All received the usual sentence.

An ice cream and strawberry festival will be held on the Reformed church lawn Thursday evening, June 28.

H. H. Myers returned home to Cleveland Sunday after spending a week with E. M. Cover and family and G. W. Heindel and family. Mrs. Myers and the children will remain another week.

Miss Hazel Stafford is home from Tiffin for vacation.

Howard Lehman was a member of the graduating class of 1917 at Goshen College, Goshen, Ind., receiving his diploma last week. His father, J. H. Lehman, and sister, Miss Ora, were present at the commencement exercises and all returned home together.

Quay Morford and family of Chicago spent the week end as guests of W. H. Ruhlman and family, and called on many old friends.

Mrs. C. A. Longstreet received a number of Club associates from Youngstown in her country home near North Lima Thursday afternoon.

Miss Frank Rohrbach has been ill the past week.

Daniel Martin and son James of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Robert Heasley and children of Slippery Rock, Miss Blanche Freer of Youngstown were entertained Sunday at O. J. Freer's.

Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Rohrbach and daughter Alice, Misses Florence Harman and Alta Albright, and Mrs. J. E. Glenn were in Warren Thursday and attended the annual Classical convention of the Sunday schools of the Reformed church.

Miss Alta Albright is in Marion this week, attending the State Sunday school convention and meeting of Girls' Congress.

Samuel Coler and family returned Friday evening from a three week's trip to Raleigh, N. C., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dutrow.

Mrs. Jay Glenn spent Saturday with relatives in Girard and Warren.

Miss Florence Hartman was a visitor at Belmont and Alliance last week.

Home Lipp has begun the erection of a fine brick residence on his lot near the square.

A large balloon put out by Goodrich Co. of Akron on a trial trip last week alighted on the Camp farm south of the village. Owing to a slight accident the two men operating it were compelled to ship it back to Akron by freight. It weighed over 400 pounds.

Strawberry season is at hand and growers are busy picking and marketing. The crop is an abundant one, and the berries are fine.

Communion services will be held at Mt. Olivet Reformed church next Sunday morning.

Paul Weaver was a visitor with Pittsburgh friends over Sunday.

APPLE AVENUE

June 28—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Robert called on friends in Washingtonville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Arnold and daughters Nannette and Marion Virginia of Youngstown spent Saturday night and Sunday at F. H. Williams'.

Florence and Russell Toot of New Albany spent Friday with their sister, Mrs. Ambrose Baird.

Ray B. Baird and wife were in Canfield Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Greasel of Pittsburgh, Otto Sanzenbacher and Lester Cox of Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Knauft and son Dale were callers at Charles Baird's Sunday.

A reunion of all former and present members of the S. E. classes of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Justice will be held at their home Saturday, June 30.

Lola Ruth Gordon spent several days last week with Edna Kenreich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hunt and daughter Marion visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson of Pittsburgh came Sunday evening to visit Isiah Hoffman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Justice and son Russell and E. J. Justice Jr. and son spent Sunday at Joel Blosser's near East Lewistown.

Children's day exercises at the Concord church next Sunday evening.

Dr. R. Lehman of Island called here last Friday.

Misses Meta Haller, Hazel Manchester, Marjorie Kline and Seth and Ralph Paulin and Russell Justice saw "The Shepherd of the Hills" played at Idora park Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blott were guests at A. Cronick's of Prospect Hill, Sunday.

EAST LEWISTOWN

June 27—Tom Moyer of Indiana called on his sister, Mrs. Nancy Blosser, last Sunday.

Frank Crumbacher and family went to see the Milton dam last Sunday.

Mrs. Nancy Blosser visited relatives in Leetonia several days last week.

Misses Lulla, Ida, Hannah and Ester Reed of Goshen, Ind., called on relatives here last week.

One evening last week Daniel Melinger and family and Amos Melinger and family of Youngstown called on their brother, M. M. Mellinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis of Salem visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Cole, last Sunday.

Miss Nellie Hahn of North Lima recently made a short call on some of the children that are in the vegetable growing contest.

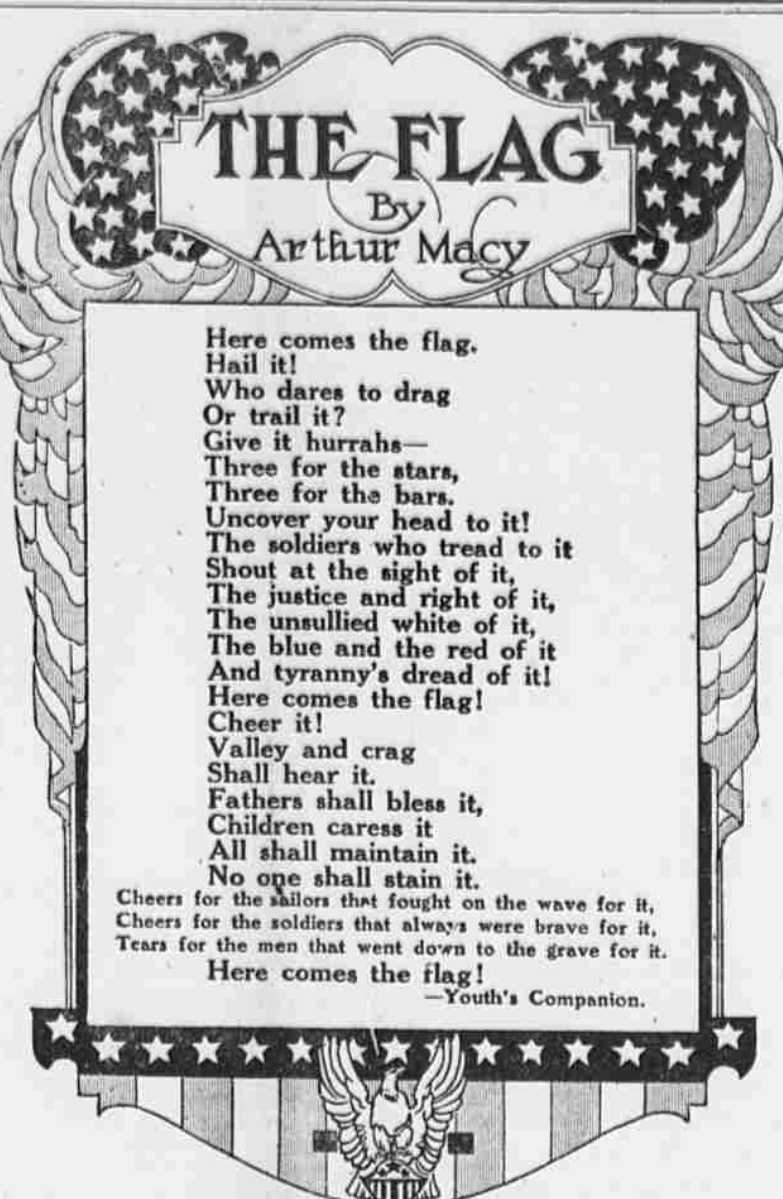

Geo. Harter and John Shank called on Carl Puckstine near Woodworth last Sunday.

Wm. Moyer, Jr., and bride of Indianapolis called on Nancy Blosser one day last week.

Jack Painter was on the sick list several days last week.

About 20 friends and relatives of Henry Landgraver from Youngstown gave him a surprise party last Sunday.

Read the Classified Columns.

SMITH'S CORNERS

June 27—Mrs. Jefferson Corli and son Chaucey spent Sunday afternoon with Charles Corli and family.

Mrs. Frank Klingeman and Mrs. Florence Whitford called on Mrs. Will Field Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thomas.

Earl Thomas spent Sunday with Thomas Kennedy on Turner Street.

Joe Seiler had the misfortune to have his thumb bitten off by a horse owned by James Tazoo last Thursday on the Snyder farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Adams and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Plaf and daughter Virginia spent Tuesday evening at Wm. Rowe's.

Miss Loretta Smith of Austintown spent a few days last week with Maudie Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Aldridge spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thomas.

Mrs. Lucy Snyder and daughter Maudie and Loretta Smith spent Wednesday evening at Dr. J. H. Schnurbecker's.

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. E. Edwards of Chicago enjoyed a birthday dinner with Mrs. Wm. Rowe last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Crum were in Youngstown Monday.

Quite a number of people from here went to see the barn fire on the Fitch farm in Austintown Saturday evening.

Fusselman and Craver brothers purchased some Holstein cattle of J. H. Fitch on Monday.

Mrs. Lucy Snyder and Mrs. Chas. Corli spent Monday at Harry Shear's.

Verla and Sigle and daughter Vera spent Monday at Martin Shear's.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harshman entertained a crowd of young people in surprise fashion Thursday evening in their home on the Burky road in honor of their son Wayne, reminding him of his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harshman, Mrs. Minnie McGrew, Mrs. Howard Brickley, Miss Loraine Brickley, Mary Schrum, Helen Burky, Edith Rowe, Margaret Barnes, Olive Wehr, Mary Brickley, Hazel Lanterman, Helen Wehr, Gretta Deidley and Margaret Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crum.

Messrs. Wayne Harshman, Joe McKnight, John Reel, James McKnight, Jay Harshman, John Brickley, Howard Pabst, Chester Reynolds, Charles Kimmel, Gerald Leonhart. The evening was spent in music and games and at a late hour a dainty lunch was served after which the guests returned to their respective homes wishing Mr. Harshman many happy birthdays.

MINERAL RIDGE

June 27—Mrs. J. T. Thomas and son, P. G. Thomas, and their guest, Mrs. Annie Forester, of Sharon, Pa., motored to Cuyahoga Falls Sunday and spent the day with friends.

T. G. Thomas and daughter Katherine, who have been visiting friends there for several weeks, returned home with them.

Children's Day was observed at the Agnes grave Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones of Warren were Sunday guests of the former's father, David Jones.

J. R. Haynes is erecting a new dwelling on Main street.

The study club will hold a picnic in Agnes' grave Saturday, June 30.

Mrs. Nettie Maurer has moved from Boardman to this place and will make her home with her son, Perry Maurer.

Mrs. Margaret Pugh spent Thursday with Warren friends.

Mrs. Ella Bailey has returned from Canfield where she was employed as a nurse at the county infirmary.

Rev. A. O. Harry and family have gone to Lordstown where they will spend the summer.

Rev. Geo. Musson of Warren called on friends here Thursday. On Sunday he occupied the pulpit of the Christian church. Rev. Musson resided here some thirty years ago. The Junior League of the M. E. Church held an ice cream social on the church lawn Friday evening from which a nice sum was realized.

At the Christian church on Thursday evening a native India missionary gave a very instructive lecture.

TURNER STREET

June 27—Mrs. T. J. Brick was called to Brookville, Pa., on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. C. C. McMillen. Funeral services were held this morning. Mrs. Brick will return home Saturday.

Mrs. F. R. Ewing was in Youngstown Saturday.

J. S. Ockerman of Youngstown spent Sunday with J. W. Ockerman's.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Rhodes and daughter Charlotte called on W. S. Rhodes and family Sunday evening.

Chas. Carson entertained Emery Lawrence of Ohi's Crossing Sunday. In the evening they were in West Austintown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sinn and Mr. Sinn's brother Alton of North Jackson visited Elmer Brobst and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fink, daughter and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn DeChamper and two sons called on W. S. Rhodes Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Brick and son Billy, Mrs. T. J. Brick and James Brown went with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Flynn of Youngstown, Sunday and Friday evenings.

We won't, has anyone made a phonograph record of the monotonous blending of the songs of the hordes of 17-year cicadas, for a practical lesson to the juvenile of tomorrow, till the next brood of locust